BIB NUMBERS PICK UP:

Place: At the tent located in the parking lot of the cruise ship terminal (next to FINISH LINE)

Friday, September 19th, 5 to 8 p.m.. – Bib numbers pick-up and last-minute registrations.

Saturday, September 20th, 10 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. - Bib numbers pick-up (On this day there will be no last-minute registrations).

Saturday, September 20th, 3 to 4 p.m. - Bib numbers pick-up (No last-minute registrations).

To pick up the bib numbers, an official identity document (ID card, passport, driver's license) will be essential.

To pick up the bib numbers, athletes who have claimed to be federated will have to provide proof from the corresponding Athletics Federation, for example a certificate. Only federated in athletics are admitted.

Participants who are unable to attend the collection of their bib in person may authorize another person. There is a form which the authorized person must bring filled out, along with their ID and a photocopy of the authorizer's ID. This document can be downloaded from the website. This procedure is essential to collect a bib from a third person, even if they are relatives. In case of collecting a bib of a federated person, the accreditation indicated in the previous paragraph must be presented.

TRANSFER FOR PARTICIPANTS:

The organization will make available to the participants, upon request in the registration form, a free transfer service to the starting line of each distance.

All participants, along with their bib number, will be given the ticket to access the bus.

The bus for the 10-mile race will leave at 4.30 p.m. from the parking lot of the Cruise Ship Maritime Station.

The start of the 10 Miles, Fortaleza de la Mola, has parking that will be enabled for companion cars, however it is convenient to take into account that the access road to La Mola will be closed from 4 p.m. and that in the event that a companion does not leave La Mola before the departure, you will have to wait in line for the race.

The bus of the 5 Mile runners will leave at 4.45 p.m. from the parking lot of the Cruise Ship Maritime Station.

The organization recommends using the free means of transport (only for participants) that are provided, as the road will suffer significant traffic restrictions. In addition, we remind you that there will be no return bus service from the Finish Line to the places of both starts.

CLOAKROOM SERVICE:

At the start there will be a bag custody service for the participating athletes.

The locker will remain open until fifteen minutes before the race (5.15 p.m.). Only one piece of luggage per participant will be admitted.

The bag must be closed and identified with the label that the organization will provide you with when you pick up the bib number.

An area will be set up in the Post-Finish area where the participants' bags will be deposited, distributed by number. The withdrawal will be made by presenting the bib number.

The organization is not responsible for personal belongings left in the cloakroom.

The maximum time for the collection of belongings will be 8 p.m. on the day of the race.

MEDICAL SERVICES:

There will be a doctor responsible for this service.

Each runner participates in the race under his/her own responsibility and declares to have a sufficient level of physical condition to face the race. The Organization recommends that all runners undergo a medical examination and/or a stress test before taking the start.

AMBULANCE SERVICE:

There will be a service in the race queue for each of the races and finish line.

RACE INSURANCE:

All officially registered participants who have claimed to be federated, participate under the coverage and insurance conditions of the Athletics Federation of their autonomous community. Athletes who have not claimed to be federated and therefore have taken out the race insurance, will be covered by the policy arranged by the organization, which will cover accidents that may occur as a direct consequence of the development of the race, but never as a result of a latent illness or defect, injury, recklessness, negligence, non-observance of the laws and the articles of the regulations, etc., or those produced in the journeys to and from the place where the race takes place.

The organization declines all responsibility for any damages that participants may suffer or cause to third parties in the hours following their participation in the race.

Athletes who have claimed to be federated will have to provide the original of their license. In case your federation does not provide you with a license document, you will have to provide a certificate from the relevant federation. Only federated in athletics are admitted.

As they are not covered by the organization's insurance, it is strictly forbidden to accompany participants by any type of vehicle, device or on foot. This includes strollers for infants or children.
